

WILSON TO SPEAK FOR LEAGUE IN NEW YORK ON MARCH 4

deavor to win him over to the League of Nations plan.

At the session of Governors and labor leaders, summoned by Secretary of Labor Wilson to meet in Washington March 3 and 4, to consider the serious labor situation brought about by readjustment of business after the war, the President may speak on March 3, dealing particularly with the League of Nations from an industrial standpoint.

There is a possibility that the President may also address the National Press Club here some day this week, but that is problematical.

The President is willing to fight for the League of Nations, and should not fail to win the opposing Senators to his viewpoint, he intends to go over their heads and appeal directly to the people of their States for their support, which he believes he will win.

HUGHES MAY SUPPORT LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

Charles Evans Hughes, a former Republican candidate for the Presidency, is expected to join former President Taft in demanding Republican support for the League. William R. Wilson, who managed Hughes' campaign, has already notified the White House that he, personally, favors the League. Theodore E. Burton, ex-Republican Senator from Ohio and President of the League of Nations Union, has wired the President his belief the League plan will win.

Senators Borah, Reed and Thomas are scheduled to make their arguments in opposition to the League in New York on March 6 and various Cabinet Members and Senators and Representatives will cover the country in advocacy of the plan, so that by the time the League of Nations is embodied in the Peace Treaty, ready for submission to the Senate for ratification, everything for and against will be perfectly familiar to the people of America. On their verdict the President is satisfied to let the fate of the League of Nations depend. He feels that the response will be so conclusive that the Senate cannot stand up against it, regardless of present sentiments.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—King George and Queen Mary gave a party at St. James's Palace last evening in honor of the approaching marriage of Princess Patricia of Connaught and Commander Alexander R. M. Ramsay, R. N. As their Majesties were in mourning for Prince John, they did not attend the party in person, but other royalties were present.

Many notable additions to the gifts were exhibited, including a magnificent eight-pointed diamond star from the officers of the Guards' Brigade, and an ostrich feather fan from Gen. Louis Botha.

Have You Heard The "Supremacy Test"?

—The unique test about which all New York is talking? Never before has there been offered by any phonograph manufacturer an opportunity to hear all the leading phonographs played under exactly the same acoustic conditions.

IT IS WELL KNOWN that there is one position in a room more favorable than others to a musical instrument.

TO OVERCOME any possible advantage of position we have placed The New Edison and the competing phonographs upon a Revolving Platform which turns as each instrument is played. You hear each from precisely the same position.

THE INSPECTION of the manufacturers of these instruments is constantly invited to make sure they are mechanically perfect. The "Supremacy Test" will be made only at your request. Ask for it.

LONDON PAPERS PRAISE WILSON'S LEAGUE FIGHT

Says He Has a Grand Gospel and Preaches It Grandly.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—Comment on President Wilson's Boston speech takes first place on the editorial pages of this morning's London newspapers. They unite in expressing the hope that the President's appeal for support of the League of Nations will meet with a favorable response in the United States.

"We can be no confident of President Wilson," says the Daily Mail, "that their generous impulse, disinterested aid and guidance will not fail his people now, but rather gain strength and permanence, as the need for it was never greater. The United States is in the war; she must be in the peace."

"President Wilson," says the Daily News, "knows that America has only begun its task and that the breach with Washington's policy is final. We do not think that the appeal will be in vain, for the President has a grand gospel and knows how to preach it grandly."

"The deliberations of the Peace Conference," says the Telegraph, "constitute a signal to the world that it is at the crossroads in its destiny. The President is not wrong in assuming that Europe looks toward the people of the United States with new confidence."

The Daily Chronicle says that if President Wilson "succeeds in carrying his people with him in this new crusade he will have succeeded in rendering a second service to mankind as great as that in bringing in the United States to finish the war."

"Few will question the statement," says the Times, "that the present peace cannot last more than a generation unless it is guaranteed by the united forces of the civilized world."

PARIS, Feb. 26.—"The home affairs of the United States are none of our business," declared the Temps, in discussing President Wilson's Boston address.

"We will not try to know if the campaign in the United States against the League of Nations is really aimed against the covenant, or if it is only the pretext for a fight between political parties. Let us simply be allowed to observe that, seen from this side, where the world conflict was born and where might rise worse conflicts in the future, the League appears to be a necessity against which no consideration of party could prevail."

"We wish, and confidently wait, for American public opinion to ratify the League."

NEW ARCHBISHOP A NEW YORKER AND A PURE AMERICAN

Cardinal John Farley elevates to the head of the greatest and richest archdiocese in the world a man who was born in the community in which he holds the highest ecclesiastical position. He has always lived in and worked in Manhattan and is an enthusiastic lover of his native city. At the age of 52 he holds in the hierarchy of the United States the third position of importance and honor. Ranking him are only Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore and Cardinal O'Connell of Boston.

Archbishop Hayes was born close to the City Hall. He was reared in St. Andrew's parish and was baptized in the famous old church in Duane Street, back of the Municipal Building. His early knowledge was gained in St. Andrew's Parochial School. His mother died in his childhood, and he was reared by an aunt. About the time he finished his schooling in St. Andrew's, his aunt moved into St. Bridget's parish. He served there as altar boy and aided in every church movement.

From St. Andrew's he went to De La Salle Institute, Manhattan College, from which he was graduated in 1891. He then entered St. Joseph's Seminary at Troy for his final training for the priesthood. He was ordained before the completion of his course in order that he might enter the Catholic University for a post-graduate course in 1892. Finished here, he returned to New York and became an assistant at St. Gabriel's Church as one of the assistants to the then Mgr. Farley, who was his rector.

Mgr. Farley was immediately won by the piety, earnestness and ability of his young assistant, and made him his secretary, and from that day until he was made Auxiliary Bishop of New York he lived with Monsignor Archbishop and Cardinal Farley.

When the latter succeeded to the Archbishopric of New York on the death of Archbishop Corrigan, he made Father Hayes, now risen to the dignity of a Monsignor, Chancellor of than 1,000 of our men there. I want to tell you that the 27th did not get one replacement from the time it went into action in that fight until we returned on Nov. 1 to our rest area at Amiens.

"I have been transferred to the 32d Division and am to go to Camp Merritt; but at my first opportunity I shall go to Washington and ask to be specially honored by being permitted to march with the 27th in its parade in New York."

"You people don't realize the fact that these boys went against. They were the pick of the German Army, and mightily seldom did a German machine gunner surrender. Nearly all of them were killed at their guns."

Gen. Hindenburg was asked if he had seen any German women operating the machine guns and he had not.

"I don't know," he said, "although we heard of those things. The 30th Division, which fought with us, is said to have found the body of a woman alongside a machine gun. She was sixty years old and had been operating the gun."

PLANS TO WELCOME DIVISION SPEEDED UP.

Plans for welcoming and entertaining the 27th Division of former New York Guardsmen under Major Gen. O'Rourke were speeded up to-day, following The Evening World's exclusive announcement from Martin Green, its staff correspondent, that Gen. O'Rourke and 9,000 men of the 105th, 106th and 107th Infantry had sailed on the Leviathan and should reach New York Monday or Tuesday.

From this it is believed possible the whole division, through unaltered ship movement, may be in New York by the end of next week, much earlier than had been expected. It was believed until Mr. Green's announcement that the 27th would not get under way before March 4 or 5.

No definite time for the arrival of the Rochembeau, which has on board the first contingent of the 27th Division, has been established. The Port of Embarkation has her scheduled for Saturday morning, but Col. Kincaid's officers' committee is going ahead preparing accommodations for the boys in the various armories in the city. Accommodations for those on the Rochembeau are being prepared at Camp Mills. These comprise 69 officers of the division in addition to 1,100 officers and men of the 103d Engineers, formerly the 22d New York.

Rodman Wanamaker, Chairman of the Reception Committee of the Mayor's Committee on Welcome, Lieut. Col. Kincaid, Lieut. Starn, Grover Whalen and Sheriff David H. Knott, met to-day and talked over arrangements to house and feed the men in the various armories when the division comes in from Camp Merritt and Camp Mills for the parade, which, it is expected, will take place a few days after March 17.

WHOLE 37TH DIVISION TO COME HOME SOON.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Gen. Pershing notified the War Department to-day that the complete 37th Division (Ohio and West Virginia National Guard) had been placed on priority for early convey home.

CUMMINGS ASSAILS LEAGUE CHARTER; OFFERS OWN PLAN

Iowa Senator Sees Danger to American Sovereignty in Paris Draft.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—While declaring his full sympathy with the purpose to form an International Peace Tribunal, Senator Cummings of Iowa in an address to the Senate to-day, declared that he was opposed to the proposed Constitution of the League of Nations because he believed some of its provisions would strike at American sovereignty.

Presenting the outline of agreements he would favor, Senator Cummings said the league draft, as presented at Paris, would form a world nation with "polyglot and incoherent power," which would submerge the American republic.

The Iowa Senator expressed approval of many of the provisions of the tentative charter of the world league. Those he attacked dealt with submission of national questions, disarmament and provision for mandates and for reciprocal territory guarantees.

In presenting definite proposals for a league which he declared could be formed without any surrender of American Sovereignty, Senator Cummings said:

"First, we ought to agree, and all other nations ought to agree, that justiciable disputes should be settled either by arbitration or adjudication, and we ought to agree, and all other nations ought to agree, without qualification or reserve that we will abide by and perform the award or judgment."

"Second, we ought to agree, and all other nations ought to agree, that with respect to other international disputes war shall not be made until some permanent, regular, international body shall have a fair opportunity to discuss and examine it."

"Third, if any nation should refuse to submit a proper controversy to judgment, or refuse to perform the judgment when rendered, or refuse to delay war, I am willing to agree that ostracism shall be the penalty inflicted."

"Fourth, the compact should contain a programme of disarmament, and after all, in disarmament lies the hope of permanent peace. The constitution proposed is most disappointing in this regard, for a careful study gives us little right to believe that there will be disarmament among the strong powers."

Referring to recent statements on the League by former President Taft, the Senator said Mr. Taft had been "conspicuously unfair and uncandid."

EASTER LILIES SUFFER IN 80-MILE HURRICANE

Fifteen Craft Piled Up on the Rocks in Bermuda When Storm Cuts Loose.

A hurricane racing at 80 miles an hour swept the harbor of Hamilton, Bermuda, on Feb. 15 and piled 15 sailing and fishing boats up on the rocks, besides doing considerable damage to the crops, according to the story brought here this morning by the Bermudian liner steamer, Charlybelle.

The liner experienced the heaviest weather known on the Bermudian coast at this season in many years. Much damage was wrought in consequence to the potato and onion crops, and it is feared that all the Easter lilies, intended for New York, have been destroyed.

On Saturday at midnight the Charlybelle caught an S. O. S. from the American merchantman Roman, which was out of fuel, with her cargo shifted and with a dangerous list to port, wallowing in the sea. Another wireless was picked up which said that the naval station at Hamilton had sent two warships to the rescue.

WARSAW, Tuesday, Feb. 25 (Associated Press).—Under the auspices of the Inter-Allied Mission to Poland, the Czech troops began to-day evacuating the Teschen mining districts which are in dispute between Poland and Czechoslovakia, the Czechs withdrawing to the line fixed by the Paris agreement of Feb. 8.

Col. Snedeker, commanding the Czech troops in Silesia, who was sent by President Masaryk to represent him, offered to consent that a further neutral zone be established to prevent possible clashes between the troops of the two nations.

PARIS, Tuesday, Feb. 25.—Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, in behalf of the American Labor Delegation here, has cabled President Wilson expressing approval of the Kenyon Bill appropriating $100,000,000 for the co-operation of the Federal Government with the States in relieving unemployment.

He urges that public building work be resumed immediately, that assistance be given private construction work and that shipbuilding be continued.

HOMER S. CUMMINGS HEADS DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE

Connecticut Man Is Made Chairman to Succeed Vance McCormick.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The Democratic National Committee to-day elected Homer S. Cummings of Connecticut as Chairman to succeed Vance McCormick. McCormick's resignation, tendered when he went to Europe as adviser to the American delegation at the Peace Conference, was accepted to-day.

Cummings will at once get the 1920 campaign under way by touring the entire country for conferences with State leaders. The determination of the Democrats to make a most vigorous campaign in the Middle West and West was evidenced by the election of J. Bruce Kerner, of Butte, Mont., and Samuel R. Anderson, of Wichita, Kan., as Vice Chairmen.

E. G. Hoffman, Fort Wayne, Ind., was elected Secretary; W. R. Hollister, Jefferson City, Mo., Executive Secretary, and W. D. Jamison, Shenandoah, Ia., Director of Finance. W. W. Marsh, Waterloo, Iowa, and Col. John I. Martin remain as Treasurer and Sergeant-at-Arms, respectively.

The election of Cummings, it became known to-day, was at the personal request of President Wilson.

LIEUT. BRADY OF YONKERS WEARS 2 WAR DECORATIONS

D. S. C. Awarded for Capturing Five Machine Guns—Won French Cross for Aiding Wounded.

Lieut. Frank Brady of Yonkers, son of Police Capt. Hugh Brady, who left Columbia University in April, 1917, to enter Plattsburg, is now wearing two decorations awarded for bravery in the field of battle.

The last, the D. S. C., was awarded for his work on Oct. 12, when, leading his men against the enemy, Brady captured five machine guns and their crews.

He was awarded the Croix de Guerre in July for his attempt to save the life of a wounded comrade, who was killed as Brady was carrying him across an open field 150 yards from the American trenches.

In addition to these medals the Yonkers boy has also been named twice in brigade and army citations for bravery. He is attached to the 1st Machine-Gun Battalion.
